

Student Survey
Fall 2007
(Pilot)

DISPOSITIONS

Item Number	Item	Sample Size	Mean	Standard Deviation
12	I believe I am developing a network of good or best friends in my BSC classes that may benefit me after I graduate.	210	3.05	.843
21	As a result of being a BSC student, I believe I am learning and growing professionally.	210	3.35	.698
28	As a direct result of my BSC education program, I am increasing my appreciation for the unique urban, rural and suburban geographical and historical connections.	210	3.19	.711
31	My BSC professors consistently demonstrate respect for the worth of all individuals and appreciation for their cultural, linguistic, experiential, and developmental backgrounds so that I am better equipped to model this for my students.	209	3.33	.620
58	I believe my cooperating teachers have respected me.	209	3.42	.683
61	Relationships with my cooperating teachers have been valuable.	211	3.49	.665
75	Developing self-critic skills has been a meaningful part of most of my professional education courses.	207	3.28	.572
76	I have learned how to accept criticism form others and use it to improve my teaching practices.	207	3.48	.565
77	I have learned and practiced how to be non-defensive when receiving criticism.	207	3.47	.598
87	As a direct result of my pedagogy and content courses, I am becoming better equipped to improve the quality of schools, students, and life for all.	187	3.07	.845